In early 2004, after two rather intense sermon regarding "what" is required by God in leading others to Christ, delivered by the Minister of the Eufaula Church of Church, Charlie Bailey, I was moved and decided that, after all these years, it was time to apply some real effort to this commandment of Christ.

My first step was to assemble the required training materials. In the process of my search, found that many original approaches explaining the simple plan of salvation exist in web pages and brochures, but the majority, if not all, were lacking a single important element. It is not that the authors of these fine works left anything out, but that they targeted only the willing or a seeker, who requests that the steps to salvation be explained.

In my experience, the vast majority of those who do not regularly attend church services in any form, are at the other end of the scale or very unwilling.

In contrast, are the members of other faiths many of which have been supplied with professionally prepared materials, intended to defend and convert others to their faith, backed in many cases, with massive print, radio and television advertising campaigns.

The critical element usually found missing in resources prepared by Member of the Church of Christ is a glorious description of the eternal joys of Heaven that awaits the faithful to the Doctrine of Christ and a graphic delineation of the ultimate destiny in the everlasting fires of Hell that awaits all others.

It can be safely stated that convincing people to accept an abstract concept of any type is difficult at best. The Insurance industry expenditure in advertising and marketing it products is enormous, in terms of dollars. Years of experience and training are required before an individual truly becomes a successful professional life insurance agent.

People simply do not enjoy discussing their final departure from this world, let alone considering that the moment of their inescapable death, that it not only end of physical life, but is the very beginning of their eternal spiritual existence, which offers only two alternatives.

So how can the inexperienced or average members of His One True Church hope to compete with the gigantic temples of false teachings that Satan has constructed? How can he or she overcome the widely held complacent attitudes in society today?

The answer is threefold, first the Church of Christ is His Church and its individual members are His representatives of the Truth. Equally important is the fact, that just like David, God is on our side. Finally, all the beliefs and practices of the Church of Christ have the POWER and AUTHORITY of the Word of God behind them.

My next step was to explore further for the desired types of training materials. In fact, over the past two years, several excellent works on the topic of Evangelism and other well-written materials by Members of the Church have been found to exist in the massive information base of the Internet.

In the beginning of the search as well as today, we are yet to uncover materials written specifically to provide the information required for the inexperience or average member of the church to feel confident in taking part in this most important function of His Church.

Faced with the realization that the type of resource sought either did not exist or was buried in a site sponsored by one or more the major congregations, the author determined, based upon a background of writing and presenting creative real estate, motivational and sales improvement programs, that it was time to put away worldly concerns and devote his efforts to developing methods and techniques on "how" to successfully convert lost souls to Christ.

Seeking the Lost.org is a collection of resources to provide clear-cut methods explaining the Truth, techniques of Leading Others to Christ and persuading them to accept Him, as their Lord and Savior.

The author was lead not only to prepare training materials, but also to develop many of the commentaries in manner that would also serve an outreach to seekers of Truth, who are outside the Body of Christ, to His Glory.

These resources are offered freely to all. The materials are copyrighted in order to assure that they will always be free and to protect against Internet pirates. Active Members of the Church of Christ are authorized to alter and personalize these materials for their personal soul winning efforts, within the generally accepted conservative Doctrine of the Church of Christ, without citation or approval.

These resources have designed for use by an individual or as the basis for group training.

We firmly believe that the application of the concepts, method and techniques found in this guide, along with continued study (John 8:31-32), will provided the both the inexperienced and seasoned Christian, the tools necessary to bring many to Christ, to the Glory of God.
